

JENNIFER JONES AT THE E.O. WILSON BIOPHILIA CENTER

4956 STATE HWY 20 EAST
FREEPORT, FL 32439

Jennifer Jones is a horticulturist of 23 years. She owns Nature of the Beach, a gardening company here in the Florida panhandle.

Jennifer will be presenting information about native plants and their crucial role in sustaining wildlife, which ultimately sustain us. She will be covering the ideals of conserving, preserving and planting these native plants, which is what she practices with her own company.

Jennifer's passion and expertise is habitat minded gardening. She will have handouts, visuals and plenty of information that will get you ready for your own garden project.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 28TH      11:00 & 1:00
